Vacancy for position of 04 Social Workers in the pilot Special Cell for Women, Union Territory (UT) of Ladakh, established with/in Ladakh Police, by Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, with support of National Commission for Women (Government of India)

The National Commission for Women (Government of India) has undertaken collaborative work with the Tata Institute of Social Sciences (Mumbai) for demonstration of pilot units of “Violence Free Home – A Woman’s Right” project, based on Special Cell for Women and Children approach, i.e. an initiative of providing psycho-social-legal services to women survivors of violence, by placing trained social workers located in the Police system with a clear understanding that violence against women is a crime and it is the responsibility of the State to prevent and counter the same.

The Special Cells for Women & Children approach – as initiated by TISS (Mumbai) in 1984, creates space in the Police system for violated women to receive support through quality psycho-social- legal services provided by professional full-time social workers, within the criminal justice system, such that the violence survivor's needs and concerns are addressed within a facilitative environment. The Resource Centre for Interventions on Violence Against Women (RCI-VAW), School of Social Work (TISS, Mumbai), is collaborating with NCW and Administration of UT of Ladakh (in particular the Police Department) for the establishment of 02 pilot Special Cell for Women in UT of Ladakh.
